Thank you. For how many months will this survey be carried out? It went into the field at the end of April and planning is underway for May. Will it take place in June, July, August etc, and when it is anticipated to end?

Also, there are options to submit new questions. Does that mean the April survey content represents the core questions, or are some items on the April survey which will be rolling in and out on an intermittent basis to accommodate new items?

Hello,

Our current plan is to continue with monthly surveys, for upto 12 months, however, we will keep this under constant review based on the changing UK context.

There will be a core content being asked every month, and then rotating or one-off modules. You will be able to submit new questions. The deadline is the 3rd of every month. The form is here: <https://www.understandingsociety.ac.uk/research/themes/covid-19>
On this page, you will also find the April questionnaire.

Best wishes,
Alita
