Description On your data linkage page (https://www.understandingsociety.ac.uk/about/data-linkage) it states that consent for linkage was asked in Waves 1 and 5. I was looking at information from the UK data service (http://discover.ukdataservice.ac.uk/series/?sn=2000053) and it looks as though this data is not available yet. Could you let me know when this data is planned to be made available? We are looking to include this information in a grant proposal and the submission date is the end of September. Kind regards, Alex

Dear Alex,

NHS digital has a large backlog of applications for data and so we are still waiting for ours to be processed. I'm sorry I can't give you a timescale for availability at the moment but the Scottish and Welsh data is progressing more quickly than the English data.

Best wishes,

Dear Stephanie,

Thank you very much for your response. I understand you can't give me any exact timescales, but is there any chance you could give me a ballpark date based on your correspondence with NHS Digital? (e.g. Summer 2019).

Thanks again,
Alex

Dear Alex,

I'm sorry to say we do not have a ballpark date. Progress has been halted on so many occasions, often at the last stages, that we simply do not know. Once we have principal agreement to link the data we will have to process the data so they can be used by other researchers. That, too, will take time and it may not be possible to do it promptly depending on the timing of linkage and its quality. We by now have more than 7 waves of data to link so it is a very data intense process.

Best wishes,
Stephanie Auty - Understanding Society User Support Officer
